

WHAT REMOTE WORKERS LOVE MOST ABOUT TELECOMMUTING

THE TOP REASON TO TELECOMMUTE

Among Virtual Vocations' 2,382 survey respondents, telecommuters are divided on the top reason to telecommute:

- 35.2%: to spend more time with family
- 32.5%: to cut costs associated with work (gas, meals, clothing, etc.)
- 32.3%: to cut down on daily commute times

THE TOP REMOTE WORK PERK

66.5% of telecommuters consider the ability to have more flexibility and control over their work schedules and time to be the greatest benefit of remote work.

Other popular remote work perks include greater work productivity achieved in less time and fewer distractions and office politics.

"GREEN" TELECOMMUTING BENEFITS

92.1% of telecommuters value the environmentally-friendly nature of remote work, which includes the following benefits:

- 1.) Fewer emissions
- 2.) Less paper waste
- 3.) Reduced space and energy consumption

TELECOMMUTING'S HEALTHY INFLUENCE

76.8% of telecommuters snack on healthy, fresh foods throughout the day versus eating packaged snack foods, sweets, and takeout menu items when feeling hungry.

SOURCE: This Infographic was prepared by Virtual Vocations, Inc. based on the results of their remote work survey from Feb. 2017.

VIEW THE COMPLETE REPORT ON THEIR BLOG

<http://www.virtualvocations.com/blog/telecommuting-news/remote-work-perks-survey-results>

